
Each panel has its own vertical scale. Negative favors F; all final residuals are zero.
Elapsed kernel durations close to program deltas; overlapping request waits are not GPU stalls.